APPLICANT: FONTANA OPA HOLDINGS LLC

AMOUNT: UP TO $37 MILLION OF REVENUE BONDS

PURPOSE: AUTHORIZING THE ISSUANCE OF REVENUE BONDS IN ONE OR MORE SERIES IN AN AGGREGATE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT NOT TO EXCEED $37,000,000 TO FINANCE THE PURCHASE BY THE AUTHORITY OF CERTAIN RIGHTS TO AND AN INTEREST IN A PORTION OF THE PAYMENTS MADE PURSUANT TO A HEREINAFTER DESCRIBED FONTANA REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY OWNER PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT AND CERTAIN RELATED COSTS AND OTHER MATTERS RELATING THERETO

PRIMARY ACTIVITY: REIMBURSEMENT THE COST PUBLIC INFRASTRUCTURE

Background/Description of the Project:

Fontana OPA Holdings LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“FOH”), is seeking to securitize its share of the Owner Participation Agreement, dated September 7, 1982, among the Fontana Redevelopment Agency (the “Former Agency”), the City of Fontana (the “City”), Ten-Ninety, LTD, a California limited partnership (the “Participating Owner”), and Southridge Partners, as amended from time-to-time (the “OPA”). The OPA sets forth certain rights and obligations of the City, the Successor Agency to the Fontana Redevelopment Agency (the “Successor Agency”) to the dissolved Former Agency, and the Participating Owner with respect to the Southridge Village development within the City, the Original Jurupa Hills Redevelopment Plan for the Jurupa Hills Redevelopment Project (the “Project Area”), as amended from time to time (the “Redevelopment Plan”), and certain tax increment, assessment and other revenues generated within the Project Area.

Pursuant to the OPA and certain related agreements, the tax increment revenues generated within the Project Area and otherwise available to the Former Agency pursuant to the Redevelopment Plan excepting only amounts to be withheld by, payable to and retained by certain governmental entities (the “Jurupa Hills Revenues”) was pledged to the Participating Owner for purposes of payments owed to the Participating Owner for development costs not previously reimbursed under the OPA.

Pursuant to the OPA and certain related agreements and the 2020 Judgment, approximately 65% of the Jurupa Hills Revenues through fiscal year 2032-33 (the “Aggregate OPA Tax Revenues”) is payable by the Successor Agency to the Participating Owner; provided, however, that pursuant to the Subordination Agreement, dated as of May 1, 2018, by between the Successor Agency and the Participating Owner (the “2018 Subordination Agreement”), the Participating Owner agreed that its rights to the Aggregate OPA Payments, which includes the Aggregate OPA Tax Revenues, will be subordinated to the payment of debt service and other amounts set aside for the owners of the Successor Agency to the Fontana Redevelopment Agency Tax Allocation Refunding Bonds, Series 2018A (Jurupa Hills Redevelopment Project) (the “2018 Bonds”).

To implement the OPA, the Participating Owner and the Former Agency entered into a Fiscal Agent Agreement, dated November 7, 1988, by and between the Former Agency and the Participating Owner and accepted and agreed to by City National Bank, as fiscal agent (the “Fiscal Agent”) on November 4, 1988, as amended by the Amendment to Fiscal Agent Agreement, dated as of January 1, 1992, among the Former Agency, the City, the Participating Owner and the Fiscal Agent (collectively, the “Fiscal Agent Agreement”).

Pursuant to a Purchase and Sale Agreement and Joint Escrow Instructions, dated as of June 11, 2019 (the “2019 Purchase and Sale Agreement”), by and among AMT CADC Venture, LLC (“AMT”) (one of the partners in the Participating Owner), as seller, and FOH, as buyer, and an Assignment Agreement dated June 20, 2019 (the “2019 Assignment Agreement”), by and between AMT and FOH, AMT absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably assigned all of its right, title, and interest in and to the Aggregate OPA Payments to FOH. The Successor Agency and the City, on June 20, 2019, acknowledged and consented to the 2019 Assignment Agreement.

As a result, FOH currently is entitled to 33.33% of the Aggregate OPA Payments received by the Fiscal Agent (the “Assigned OPA Payments”). The Fiscal Agent receives the Aggregate OPA Payments from the Successor Agency and is irrevocably instructed to pay over to FOH 33.33% of the funds received by the Fiscal Agent and otherwise payable to the Participating Owner (which is net of the Fiscal Agent’s fees and expenses under the Fiscal Agent Agreement), after deducting therefrom 33.33% of the Participating Owner’s partnership expenses determined by the Participating Owner and submitted to the Fiscal Agent in good faith from time to time (the “Ten-Ninety Operating Expenses”).

FOH is requesting that the California Public Finance Authority (the “Authority”) issue the Bonds, pursuant to an Indenture of Trust (the “Indenture”), between the Authority and Western Alliance Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the “Trustee”). The proceeds of the Bonds will be used to (i) fund a portion of the purchase price from FOH, (ii) make deposits into reserve funds for the Series A Bonds and Series B Bonds; (iii) make a deposit in the Administrative Costs Fund; (iv) make a deposit in the extraordinary costs fund; and (v) pay the costs of issuance for the Bonds, including HTS underwriting discount. The Series C Bonds are not expected to have a debt service reserve requirement.

The Bonds are to be repaid solely from the available OPA Tax Revenues, consisting of the tax increment portion of the Assigned OPA Payments. There will not be any amendments, supplements, modifications, or changes to the OPA or additional relevant documents or instruments materially affecting the rights, duties, or obligations of any party to the OPA or their successors and assignees. Further, the Bonds will not be subject to any proceedings or provisions with respect to the dissolution and winding down of the Former Agency affairs under Parts I.8 (commencing with Section 34161) and 1.85 (commencing with Section 34170) of Divisions 24 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California, as amended by Assembly Bill No. 1484 and Senate Bill No. 107 (as further amended from time to time, the “Dissolution Act”).

On or about by June 30, 2033, the Authority expects that the Series A Bonds and the Series B Bonds will be paid in full and that the Series C Bonds will be legally defeased and have no further claim to any available OPA Tax Revenues.

Cashflow of Aggregate OPA Tax Payments:

As previously disclosed, the Bonds are not materially amending, changing, modifying, or supplementing the Aggregate OPA Tax Revenues other than through an assignment of the Assigned OPA Tax Revenues pursuant to the Purchase and Sale Agreement, by and between FOH and the Authority (the “Purchase and Sale Agreement”), and all of FOH’s right, title and interest in the Assigned OPA Payments pursuant to the Assignment Agreement, by and between FOH and the Trustee (the “2025 Assignment Agreement”). Under the 2025 Assignment Agreement, FOH will absolutely, unconditionally, irrevocably and forever transfer, assign, convey and set over to the Trustee all of its right, title and interest in and to the Assigned OPA Payments. Pursuant to the Irrevocable Instructions to the Fiscal Agent, effective as of the date of issuance of the Bonds (the “Irrevocable Instructions”), FOH will irrevocably instruct the Fiscal Agent to pay over the Assigned OPA Payments to the Trustee for the Bonds.

The following is an overview of the cashflow of the Jurupa Hills Revenues:

- Gross Tax Revenues generated from the Project Area;
- Less San Bernardino County administrative costs and fees;
- Less Property Tax Exemptions rebated back to certain special districts;
- Less Pass-Through Agreements;
- Less payment of debt service on the Series 2018 Bonds;
- Less Payment of principal and interest on the 2018 Bonds;
- Less replenish, if necessary, the debt service reserve requirement for 2018 Bonds;
- Distribution of Aggregate OPA Tax Revenues Payments to Fiscal Agent and deposit with the partners of Ten-Ninety Ltd; and
- Trustee receipt of OPA Tax Revenues from Fiscal Agent for deposit in OPA Tax Revenue Fund.

The Section 5.05 of the Indenture provides a detail description of the flow of OPA Tax Revenue Fund with the final paragraph providing for redemption of the Series C Bonds on September 1 through the maturity of the Series C Bonds.

TEFRA Information:

None required.

Financing Structure:

The Bonds will be issued, in three series pursuant to a plan of finance in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed $37 million, with the Series A Bonds and Series B Bonds being issued as tax-exempt fixed rate bonds, respectively, and the Series C Bonds being issued as tax-exempt cash flow bonds. The financing will comply with California Public Finance Authority's issuance policies.

Attachment 1

Public Benefit:

On around September 1, 2033, the Authority expects to instruct the Trustee to release the balances of the Series A Reserve Fund and the Series B Reserve Fund, respectively, to be transferred to the Successor Agency.

The structuring and ultimate issuance of the Bonds, and the transfer of the balances of the Series A Reserve Fund and the Series B Reserve Fund, respectively, at the maturity of the Bonds, will result in a public benefit to the citizens residing in the jurisdiction of the City because it is expected that such transfer will demonstrate savings in effective bond preparation, underwriting, and costs of issuance.
